Bonnie Meeks

Bonnie Meeks grew up in Nemaha County and recently moved back to the area. She has over thirty years' experience in the banking, business personal property and real estate fields. Bonnie has a Masters Degree in Accounting and is employed with the Kansas State Office of the State Banking Commission as a financial bank examiner. In addition to her real estate license, she holds a Kansas insurance license. Bonnie also teaches the GED program with Highland

Community College. She volunteers at the Seneca Mission when her schedule allows. Bonnie has two children; James is a supervisor for Coca-Cola in Lenexa, and Amanda attends Fort Hays State University majoring and is in Business and Marketing.

Prior to relocating to Seneca, Bonnie was very active in the Paola, Kansas community. She served on the Library Board, Foster Grandparent Board, Rockwood Homeowners Association Board, and the Pastoral and Finance Council for Holy Trinity Parish.

Bonnie is currently training for the STEP Bookkeeper position and would like to serve on the STEP Board of Directors.
